

THE SHARE SONG

Chorus:

It's not just what you're born with, it's what you choose to bear
It's not how large your share is, but it's how much you can share
And it's not the fights you've dreamed of
But those you've really fought
It's not just what you're given
It's what you do with what you've got

- 1) You must know someone like him -he's tall and strong and lean
His body like a greyhound and his mind so sharp and keen
But his heart just like a laurel, grew twisted on itself
Until almost everything he did brought pain to someone else
- 2) So what's the use of two good legs if you only run away
And what's the use of the finest voice with nothing good to say
And what good is strength and muscle if you only push and shove
And what's the use of two good ears if you can't hear those you love
- 3) Between those who use their neighbor and those who use a cane
Between those in constant power and those in constant pain
Between those who run to evil and those who cannot run
Tell me which ones are the cripples and which one reach the Son
